Jewish Prayer

Blessed are You, HaShem, our God, King of the Universe, Who formed man with intelligence, and created within him many openings and many hollow spaces; it is revealed and known before the Seat of Your Honor, that if one of these would be opened or if one of these would be sealed it would be impossible to survive and to stand before You (even for one hour).

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy.
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; To be understood as to understand; To be loved as to love; For it is in giving that I receive, It is in pardoning that I am pardoned, And it is in dying that I am born to eternal life.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

Philippians 4:6
Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

At Charlotte Regional Medical Center, we understand that our patients heal more quickly when spiritual care is incorporated with medical and emotional intervention.

Our body is a three-part system – body, emotions, spirit. When all three parts are functioning well it is called holistic health.

Our physical body needs physicians, nurses and therapists to facilitate physical health.

Our emotions need psychiatrists, psychologists, and therapist to assist in mental health.

Our spirit needs clergy and ministers from your personal faith to restore you to spiritual wellbeing.
